Summary

I am diligent and ardent student who is determined to overcome challenges and is motivated by my pursuit for knowledge and opportunity to learn new things. Being proactive and ambitious has fuelled my desire to drive change, through my interpersonal skills, adaptability of character and ability to use analytical thinking to find creative solutions to complex problems in a methodical way. Always seeking the opportunity to progress my skills and broaden my horizons, I am compelled to lifelong learning, where the scope of leadership and collaboration are boundless.
